Parish Registers :

A LIST OF THOSE PRINTED,
OR OF WHICH MS. COPIES EXIST IN PUBLIC
COLLECTIONS,

TOGETHER WITH

References to Extracts therefrom,

PRINTED AND MANUSCRIPT.

BY

GEORGE W. MARSHALL, LL.D.,

Rouge Croix Pursuivant of Arms.

LONDON :

PRIVATELY PRINTED FOR THE PARISH REGISTER SOCIETY.

1900.

P R E F A C E .

The following List of Printed and MS. Parish Registers was first privately printed by me in 1891, and re-issued in 1893, as a supplement to the third edition of my Genealogist's Guide. The present List will be found to contain very extensive additions to that given in the Guide, so much so, that I trust it will be found as much up to date as can be expected in a reference list of its kind. It is the only attempt which has been made to compile a list of Registers and Register Extracts, readily available for the use of genealogists, and which may in many cases save them the trouble of making an original search, or a tedious and expensive journey to some out-of-the-way parish.

With regard to references to collections of extracts from Registers, I have had some difficulty in deciding how many extracts from a Register should entitle it to a reference in these pages, and consequently have not followed any general rule. In some instances only half-a-dozen may be found, and in others more than twice the number have been omitted, because they are of no use to the genealogist, such for instance as "a traveller, died at John Smiths." It must be borne in mind that only general extracts are noticed, when a collection of extracts relates solely to one particular family, I have purposely omitted them.

I think I can fairly claim to have included all, or very nearly all, the Registers which have been printed in extenso, as well as those of which MS. copies exist in Libraries, such as the Heralds' College, the British Museum, the Guildhall, the Society of Antiquaries, and several local institutions.

It will be noticed by those who have been in the habit of consulting the former editions of this list, that its form has been somewhat altered, chiefly by adding the County to each place.

For the addition of the County to the names of places, as well as other emendations, the Society is indebted to our excellent Honorary Secretary, Mr. E. A. Fry, whose assistance in seeing the book through the press, I feel I ought to gratefully acknowledge.

It may be remarked that this list does not contain any references whatever to manuscript transcripts of Parish Registers in private hands. It was thought advisable not to include them, on account of the annoyance that might be caused to those possessing such transcripts by persons writing to know if entries relating to some particular family were to be found in them.

The Secretary of the Parish Register Society, however, is always glad to hear of the transcription, contemplated or made, of any Parish Register, with a view to its being printed by the Parish Register Society.

GEORGE W. MARSHALL.
